Youth Group Housing

You are invited to attend the Youth Group Housing Workshop on Tuesday, April 29, from 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. at the Montgomery County Business Solutions Center. The goal of the workshop is for participants to come away with a better understanding of the issues with Youth Group Housing and the potential challenges and solutions for both their local community and within the region.

The intended participants include decision makers and professional staff in various fields—such as community development, planning, health, police and fire— in or working with local and county level government. The workshop will provide an opportunity to learn the definition and background of Youth Group Housing issues faced by local jurisdictions and hear from a panel discussion involving three case studies from around the Miami Valley region.
