

Who We Are

- a nonprofit whose mission is to attract and retain young talent
- an advocacy group for the needs of young talent
- a grassroots force for change in our community
- a hub of engagement for the next leaders of Dayton
- We have no membership, nor age limit

Summit!

Dayton Inspires

Mission: To shift the perception of Dayton, the city and the region — by creating buzz through a new social campaign, which reflects growth, opportunity and positivity within the Dayton region. We aim to inspire community, recognize and share culture, and unite people across the city in proudly calling Dayton home.

Regional Land Use Planning Initiative

Going Places Frequently Asked Questions

What is the main purpose of the Going Places initiative?

The entire process is geared toward developing a shared future land use vision represented by a region-based conceptual land use framework that local jurisdictions and organizations can use as a resource and tool for guidance in making local land use decisions.

The screenshot shows the top portion of the Dayton Inspires website. At the top, the word "DAYTON" is in a blue, sans-serif font, and "Inspires" is in a large, red, cursive font. Below this, a navigation bar contains four links: "WELCOME HOME", "OUR MISSION", "WHO WE ARE", and "GET INVOLVED". The "WHO WE ARE" link is highlighted. Below the navigation bar is a hero image of a city skyline at sunset with the text "WHO WE ARE" overlaid in white.

- We immediately created a website, Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
- So far we have 825 likes, 363 instagram followers, 399 Twitter followers
- 1,312 instagram posts with #daytoninspires

From stickers, to stencils, to t-shirts and temporary tattoos. If we can put our brackets on something then participants can say how Dayton has inspired them.

What we still want to do:

- downtown mural
- T-shirts, online ordering
  - multiple designs?
  - Dayton Children's has agreed to be a sponsor
- more business-driven mini-campaigns like Ghostlight
- reach every resident and visitor to the Dayton region with the message that Dayton is an inspiring, positive place.

How can you help?

- Be an advocate for the Dayton region!
- Add DI logo to website, newsletter, personal email signature
- Invest $200 in printing more stickers to pass out (you can customize, we'll design)
- Plan a contest/awareness campaign for DI We'll provide support graphics
- Use #DaytonInspires on social media
- Sponsor traditional advertising
- Brainstorm with us on other ideas

